Remarks: The Director called on 9 Oct in reply to her letter and advised that at the moment there was nothing in the Agency which would fit her qualifications. He pointed out that we were reducing rather than increasing personnel, particularly in the higher grades. He told her, however, that he would keep her in mind should anything turn up and get in touch with her.

STAT

Your letter of September 20 was brought to my attention upon my return from a recent trip to Europe and I am indeed appreciative of your good offer of assistance.

I have been exploring the possibilities a bit and find that right now we just don't have a spot in which your capabilities could be properly utilised. I will certainly bear it in mind however, and should something develop I will certainly be in touch with you.

With best wishes.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
